The Attribute Index is a revolutionary profile for consultants to measure organizational skills and competencies and to increase individual and team efficiency and effectiveness.

Built specifically for the business environment, and to be easy to use by any manager, the Attribute Index assesses an individual’s cognitive style (i.e., how they think).

Our Founder, Jay Niblick, built this profile based on the groundbreaking work of Dr. Robert S. Hartman (Yale/MIT). The profile is a uniquely powerful way of quantifying an individual’s ability in 80+ business related areas.

Over 30 validation studies make the Attribute Index one of the most powerful and reliable profiles on the market today.

Used by over 600,000 people in over 31 countries, the Attribute Index can help in finding, developing and keeping the very best talent.
The DISC Index is the most contemporary interpretation of Dr. William Marston’s ground-breaking work into understanding and measuring a person’s natural behavioral style as constructed by Jay Niblick, Founder and CEO of Innermetrix Inc.

Understanding individual behavioral preferences and habits is crucial when working with team members, as a leader or a manager of several people, or in an environment that requires conflict resolution. The DISC Index can be used in a variety of situations, such as selection and hiring, succession planning and team development.

The DISC Index profile is unique in that it:
• has the highest validity and reliability scores on the market today
• was the first behavioral instrument to produce zero waste by ranking all words, not just half
• uses a one-of-a-kind click and drag interface for significantly greater accuracy and ease-of-use
• contains the most current instrument items for increased accuracy and reliability

The IMX process showed us how undefined our understanding was of the total assets we had within our own sales department. This was instrumental in developing a plan to maximize performance and meet our objectives.

David Burns
Director of Management Development
Jay Niblick combined the works of Drs. Spranger and Allport to create the Values Index, the most powerful motivations profile on the market today.

This kind of information is vital when it comes to motivating employees, making hiring and selection decisions, understanding performance issues or any situation that requires understanding what drives, motivates and inspires an individual.

Understanding WHY someone does what they do is the key to understanding how to get them engaged with work and in an environment that will lead to the most passion.

The Values Index profile is unique in that it:
• has the highest validity and reliability scores on the market today
• was the first values instrument to examine seven separate dimensions of motivation
• was the first click and drag values instrument interface on the market today
• contains the most current instrument items for increased accuracy and reliability

“I have worked in this industry for over 25 years and I have never seen such an effective, in-depth process that can change the way you manage your business in such a significant way.”

Dr. Joyce Knudsen - President
The IMX ADVanced Insights Profile combines the best of three world-class profiles. The Attribute Index measures WHAT natural talents a person has, based on how they think and make decisions. The Values Index measures WHY a person is motivated to use their talents, based on motivational drivers. And, the DISC Index measures HOW a person prefers to use their talents, based on the natural behavioral style.

Together they create the WHAT, WHY and HOW of human performance; What natural talents do you have, Why are you motivated to use them and How do you prefer to use them.

This is the most comprehensive psychometric battery on the market today, and puts you in the position to provider greater value to your clients than any other profile on the globe.

A high level of self-awareness and discovery are the core to achieving peak performance in any role or endeavor, and to ensure that you properly align what you do best with how you do it and why.

“Our use of the ADVanced Insights helped us not only understand how we should value a potential acquisition team, but also how acquiring them would effect our own leadership team”

The Innermetrix team developed the Organizational Health Checkup to investigate 55 areas necessary for optimum performance of any business. The study also determines the extent of workforce alignment with your company’s objectives and culture. The results of the Organizational Health Checkup will identify the major areas to be targeted for improvement and reinforcement.

Your business health and workforce alignment scores, with accurate results in 11 different key performance areas, will enable you to develop a long-term plan for business improvement with sustainable growth.

Having this level of holistic understanding for the overall health of your organization will allow you to positively identify problems more efficiently, and maximize existing high-performing business segments more effectively.

The OHC profile indicates the degree of current and future business health and sustainability.

“The Health checkup was instrumental in helping to identify a significant area of need that was causing underperformance. In 35 minutes, from that one assessment, IMX saved us $280,000!”

Daniel Erasmus – CEO
Our focus at Innermetrix is to help businesses identify, understand and improve the overall health and profitability of their organization.

Organizations everywhere are looking for better ways to answer that question, and properly discover what really drives performance in a modern business. During these challenging economic times, being able to understand how to drive effectiveness and performance in the business is critical.

Innermetrix, along with Allan Miller, Managing Director of Innermetrix International, has developed a comprehensive suite of business development processes that allow our consultants to help businesses more accurately identify critical company issues, measure and isolate the causes, and implement appropriate solutions to resolve them.

The IMX approach is a holistic business process that breaks down the complicated structure of an organization to 11 separate but interdependent core areas of performance.

From there, our consultants can deliver dedicated training programs designed to alleviate the pains in areas like: Leadership, Communication, Teamwork, Management, Sales, Customer Service and Hiring.

Each training program is built to integrate the Innermetrix profile so each participant can experience a personalized process, with singularly unique outcomes.

The result is a proven, easy-to-follow process that delivers improved overall health and profitability to every dimension of your client’s business.
